

Project Requirements

Blues Ltd. is a manufacturer specializing in the design, production, and distribution of high-quality industrial hardware / consumer goods / electronics products. With a catalog of over 100 products spanning tools, components, accessories the company serves customers ranging from individual buyers to large-scale distributors and retailers.

Founded in 2000, Blues Ltd. operates a modern manufacturing facility in the UK, combining in-house engineering with strict quality control to ensure consistent product reliability. The company is known for its broad and diverse product range, competitive pricing, and ability to fulfill both retail and bulk/wholesale orders.

It continues to expand its offerings each year, driven by customer feedback and market demand, while maintaining a strong focus on durability, safety standards, and customer satisfaction.

Candidate: We are looking for a suitable candidate for Data Analytics who is responsible for connecting data sources from APIs and Databases. Make a Central Data Warehouse for transforming raw data into cleaned data. Then make a report using Power BI.

Functional Requirements:

- Data Extract from APIs and Database
- High Level Architect of data work flow
- Data Transformation in Central Data Warehouse like naming convention, data quality check, all transformation that are needed.
- Data Modeling using Power BI by connecting data warehouse
- Reporting and Real-Time Dashboard.

Non-functional Requirements:

- Data quality must be reflected on the source data
- Performance should be Scheduled ETL
- RLS security define as requirement
- All project elements should be deliverable
- Submitted in time-period

Skill Required:

- Database Management
- SQL
- Data Warehouse
- APIs Creation
- Python
- Power BI Modeling & Reporting

Project Submission Time: 8/8/2026